

About Us

Metro Innovations is a web services firm that specializes in professional website design and development for small and medium sized businesses and individuals. We work with you one on one from being to end to turn your web site visions into a reality. If you are looking for a designer to create a professional, affordable and unique website for you, then you need not look any further. Our websites are a mix of current web 2.0 styles, and professionalism. Our work will set you apart from the rest of the pack... Why look like everyone else? Be unique, be different and be successful! With years of web design experience, we know what works. We know the ins and outs of a successful website. We can help you! Our no nonsense approach to design combined with our customer service is what makes us different! Want to know more about Metro Innovations? Feel free to Contact Us Thank you for considering Metro Innovations!

Daniel Leichtweis - Owner Metro Innovations